

Grief Support for Children and Adults

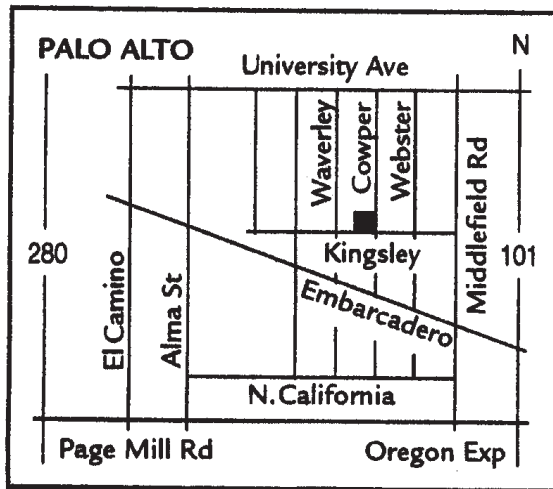

Support Group for Parents Who Are Grieving the Death of an Adult Child

Group Meets for Twelve Weeks

7:00 to 8:30 P.M.

Kara offers a support group for parents who are grieving the death of an adult child. The participants in the group will share their experience and learn from the experience of others.

The group will meet for 12 weeks (specific dates and days to be determined) at the Kara office, 457 Kingsley Ave. at the corner of Kingsley and Cowper, Palo Alto.

An initial interview is required before enrolling in the group. To facilitate the development of trust and openness, enrollment is closed once the group has begun. However, new groups begin throughout the year.

If you are interested in becoming a participant or would like more information call Kara at (650) 321-5272.

Kara is a nonprofit organization that provides counseling, education and information to individuals and groups who are living with issues of life-threatening illness, limited life expectancy, death and grief. Please call our office to find out about additional services.
